WAITING FOR THE BOYS.

Mother, put the kettle on, the boys are on the way, Comin' home from all about to spend Thanksgiving day. One a judge, and one a doc., and one a millionaire, But hungry for the old home kiss, and plain old home fare. Taste the turkey once again, and crisp his golden brown, But they can't get grub like that a-livin' down to town. Cramb'ry sass and veg'tables—ain't they fine to see? Our boys are bringing appetites home to you and me. Our boys are bringin' other things, but dearest in our sight is love for us who keep the home, and faith and appetite! Mother, put the kettle on, and have the water hot. CHASE & SANBORN'S coffee is the stuff that hits the spot, Gracious, ain't it splendid when you open up that tin, beats the scents of Araby! Lemme sniff ag'in. boys will smell it from the hill, and how they'll hurry up, shake from dad—a kiss from Ma, and then a brimming cup.

A Brief Record of Local Events.

Saturday's bright sunshine brought the people out in full force and the streets of Grants Pass were filled with residents from all over the county.

G. A. Savage is doing the collecting for the Anti-Saloon League and he reports finding people ready and willing to "pungle up," for the good cause.

While the two south-bound passenger trains were delayed here most of Tuesday afternoon, Jan. Kubelik, the celebrated Bohemian violinist entertained in his private car, rendering some very choice selections on his violin, much to the pleasure of a big crowd of interested spectators.

Ray Wilcox and his brother, Russell Wilcox, who is a forest ranger, last Saturday at Oregon City entered a plea of guilty to the charge of using abusive and profane language on the public highway near Gladstone. Justice of the Peace Stipp imposed a fine on them of $20 each and the money was paid.

Many people were hoping that the big pile of gravel which was dumped off here was to be used in the construction of the longlooked for sidewalk which the S. P. officials recently promised would soon be forthcoming. But alas! It has been used in ballasting the roadbed in the local yards.

Two railroad surveys have been made through Del Norte county—one from Grants Pass, Oregon, and the other down the coast from Coos Bay to San Francisco. We are hoping for both of them to materialize. When they do Del Norte county will come to the front.—Crescent City News

Undoubtedly one of the most important events in local lodge circles, was the joint installation of the newly elected officers of Aetna Rebekah and Golden Rule Lodge, No. 78, Wednesday evening. It was attended by a large number of leading citizens and everyone reports having had a delightful time. The banquet was "simply immense," as one enthusiastic wearer of the three links remarked to the Courier reporter.

A representative of the Bradstreet Commercial Agency has been in Grants Pass for a day or so and it is understood that he is representing Governor Chamberlain in investigating the stability of the bond offered by Treasurer Steel. It is believed he will find the men on the bond at this place good, but it is understood that some elsewhere have been turned down.

Word comes from Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dixon, who are sojourning in Southern California, to the effect that they are greatly enjoying their stay in the "land of flowers and sunshine" and that the trip is greatly benefitting Mr. Dixon's health. They are seeing the sights of the country by means of an automobile, which Mr. Dixon purchased before leaving this city. They will return to Grants Pass early in the spring.

The first annual Rogue River Valley poultry show will be held in Grants Pass on January 30, 31 and February 1. The show will be under the auspices of the Grants Pass Poultry Keepers' association which organization is making every endeavor so that it shall be a credit to the valley and a strong factor in the development of the poultry industry in this part of Oregon.

"It is truly remarkable how many people in Grants Pass are sleeping out in tents, right through the winter season," was the remark made to the reporter by one observing citizen. Among others, he mentioned the following citizens as being out in tents through the night time: Rev. C. O. Beckman, E. P. Hughes and A. E. Voorhies, and he said that there were many others.

There was a lively "scrap," near the depot, Tuesday forenoon, when Jas. Bumgardner and Jos. H. Yetter engaged in a good, old-fashioned fist fight. Both parties meant business and only desisted after City Marshal McGrew interrupted the bout and marched the belligerents off to the Police Judge, where they were both fined for disturbing the peace. The trouble is said to have arisen over some matrimonial matters.

The Postmaster-General has issued an order or notice that all rural mail carriers have the right of way on all the county roads, and that all other carriages or conveyances must surrender that right of way to the rural carriers. That was the rule when the mails were carried in four-horse stagecoaches, and everyone had to get out of the way when the mail coach came along. It is a very serious matter for anyone to obstruct the rapid transportation of the United States mails. Get out of the road when the rural free delivery carrier comes along with Uncle Sam's mail!

The better element of the liquor dealers in Salem have started a fight against prohibition by protesting against the granting of licenses to saloons having the reputation for violating the laws and for disorderly conduct. They have also signed agreements not to sell liquor to minors nor to persons intoxicated. Had the dealers in wet goods used this plan years ago probably the wave of prohibition that is sweeping over the entire country today would not be so strong.
